

JAY MOONEY RACING

PRESS RELEASE 19 JANUARY 2013

Jay Mooney Racing have celebrated the start of 2013 by launching their own website to keep in touch with teams, fans and sponsors.

Having recently completed his debut season with the MG Owners Club, Jay Mooney is regularly updating his website www.jaymooneyracing.co.uk/ alongside his twitter and Facebook pages. Bursting with useful information about Jay, his car and the 2013 race calendar, it is the best way to keep an eye on his career throughout the season.

Having finished in the top ten racing in a MG ZR 160 with the MG Owners Club Jay Mooney is taking a step up in 2013 as he'll be racing in the MG Trophy. This has been the learning ground for BTCC stars and the most recent of these being 2012 Clio Cup Champion, Jack Goff who will race in the BTCC in 2013.

About Jay Mooney

Jay Mooney, born and bred in Kidlington, Oxfordshire leads his racing team into the MG Trophy in 2013.

Raised trackside as a youngster, Jay was soon finding his way round the kart circuits both home and abroad before his studies took precedent. Now, Jay is looking to push on and see where this natural talent could lead.

Racing his MGZR 160 at some of the best known circuits in motorsport such as Silverstone, Brands Hatch and Donington Jay invites you to follow him and his progress on and off the track.

Media

Jay Mooney is available for media enquiries, interviews and events. As a keen follower of all things motorsport Jay runs his own blog and contributes to forums, guest blogs and race event reporting.
